Ref: HR76/2013  Date: 20th May 2013

From: Directorate for Educational Services (DES)
To: Directors, College Principals and Heads of School/Section (State Only)
Subject: Internal Call for Applications to perform duties as a Peripatetic Literacy Support Teacher in State Primary Schools in Malta for 2013-2015

Directors, College Principals and Heads of School/Section are kindly requested to ensure that this circular is brought to the attention of ALL teaching staff, including those on any sort of leave. It is strongly recommended that all teaching staff are informed through their iLearn e-mail account since this is considered the official email address.

“In accordance with clause 3.1(l) of the current Collective Agreement, nomenclatures importing the male gender include also the female gender”.

Introduction

1.1 The Directorate for Educational Services (DES) is inviting applications from public officers in the grade of teachers/instructors to perform duties as a peripatetic Literacy Support Teacher in the respective State Colleges’ Primary schools in Malta, for the period September 2013 to August 2015.

1.2 Those already performing such duties and who wish to continue providing this service, need to:
   - apply if they are serving on an acting basis;
   - re-apply if their term as per call under which they are serving is due to expire by the end of this scholastic year.

1.3 Those already performing officially such duties should not re-apply if their term of service does not expire at the end of this scholastic year.
Eligibility Criteria

2.1 Applicants must have a minimum of five (5) scholastic years teaching experience in the primary sector.

Duties and Responsibilities

3.1 The duties and responsibilities of the selected candidate shall include:

- performing all duties of a teacher (see; Job Description Handbook, July 2007);
- having in-depth knowledge of the development of oracy, reading and writing;
- being knowledgeable about the implications of the checklists;
- working with kindergarten staff to develop adequate pre-literacy skills;
- contributing to the development of oral/aural language competences;
- contributing to the development of the language policy;
- developing a team-based approach to the development of literacy skills (together with the class teacher and the teacher for Complementary Education);
- through team-based approach contributing to differentiated teaching and evaluating literacy levels;
- through the team-based approach contributing to the formulation of learning programmes as and when necessary;
- keeping records and profiles and regularly monitoring progress in line with the Core Competences checklist;
- contributing to literacy-rich environments in school through the implementation of reading schemes/materials with support children at the different levels of reading attainment;
- assisting in the training of teachers and parents;
- contributing to the formulation of the school Action Plan for literacy development;
- co-ordinating with other service providers so as to synergise services;
- contributing to the use of ICT at Primary level;
- working effectively as part of a team;
- working effectively, creatively and flexibly on one’ own in school contexts;
- performing any other duties requested from time to time by the Directors General DES/DQSE.

3.2 A selected candidate is expected to perform these duties in various primary schools within the College/s s/he is assigned to, according to exigencies.
Duration of assignment and conditions

4.1 A selected candidate may be College and/or centrally based according to any prevailing exigencies including shared arrangements between Colleges, schools, and centres.

4.2 A selected candidate will be obliged to serve up to two (2) full scholastic years as stipulated by this call for applications subject to developments related to the NCF implementation, except for situations deemed by the Directors General DES/DQSE as special circumstances. In such eventuality, the successful candidate may lose the right to revert to the College/school/section where s/he was serving in prior to applying, even if the successful candidate would have only served for a short period of time.

4.3 The services of a selected candidate may, for a justified reason, be suspended/terminated at any time at the discretion of the Director General, DES. In such an eventuality the officer concerned will either perform duties in connection with a related assignment or revert to class/subject teaching and not necessarily at the school/s s/he was last serving in, as the case may be.

General Provisions

5.1 A selected candidate may be required to attend courses, locally or abroad, as the DES/DQSE may deem necessary.

5.2 A selected candidate will be eligible to apply for posts/positions (promotions) and will retain progression rights as stipulated in the collective agreement for teaching grades. Service performing duties mentioned above will be considered as teaching experience and consequently the selected candidate will retain all rights of his/her substantive grade.

5.3 A selected candidate is expected to work normal school hours and will not be entitled to any extra remuneration. In fact should a teacher/instructor residing in Gozo be selected, transport expenses or any other expenses (e.g. overnight stays) will have to be met by the successful candidate. However, should the teacher/instructor be required to perform his/her duties in more than one school/educational institute on the same day, s/he would be entitled to reimbursement as per PSMC 8.2.10 and DGSS Circular 01/2013.

5.4 Applicants have the right to apply for more than one internal call (using a separate application form), but the DES reserves the right:

- to determine the number of teachers needed;
- not to place all successful candidates;
- to offer successful candidates only one vacancy according to the exigencies of the service.

Selection will be made according to the merit list which will remain valid for one (1) scholastic year.

5.5 A selected candidate will be contacted by e-mail through the iLearn e-mail account between 1st July and 15th September 2013. A selected candidate, who is accepting, need not reply. However, if the selected candidate is no longer interested to perform these duties, s/he is required to send an e-mail to: deployment@gov.mt within 48 hours from the date and time of the e-mail.

Submission of recognition statements in respect of qualifications

6.1 With respect to qualifications produced in response to this call for applications, applicants are required to produce a recognition statement by the Malta Qualifications Recognition Information Centre (MQRIC) based within the Malta Qualifications Council, or by any other designated authority, as applicable. Such statement should be attached to the application and the original presented at the interview.

6.2 Applicants who are not in possession of such a statement may still apply, provided that they submit a copy of the statement to the Customer Care, Directorate for Educational Services as soon as it is available and, in any case, by not later than one month from the closing date of the call for applications. Applicants who fail to present the required statement within the one-month period for reasons beyond their control may request an extension of this time limit, up to a further one month, from the Director General DES, indicating clearly the reasons for the delay. Requests for extensions beyond this period are to be submitted for the consideration of the Director General DES.

6.3 Applicants are exempt from the above requirements in respect of qualifications obtained from accredited universities or other accredited institutions that are listed and available for download from the MQRIC page of the Malta Qualifications Council website (www.mqc.gov.mt/mqric). In cases of doubt, however, the Selection Board may set aside this exemption and direct an applicant to procure a recognition statement from MQRIC. In such a case the applicant shall be given one month to procure the statement, subject to the possibility of extension as provided for in sub-paragraph (6.2) above.

Selection, publication of merit list and submission of petitions relating to the result

7.1 All eligible applicants will be assessed by a selection board to determine in rank order their suitability to perform these duties. Due consideration will be given to applicants in possession of an appropriate recognised related qualification and/or have proven related experience.

7.2 The merit lists will be published by the Directorate for Educational Services (DES) and exhibited on the notice board of the Customer Care Section, Directorate for Educational Services, Great Siege Road, Floriana or the Education Office, Fortunato Mizzi Street, Victoria, Gozo. A notification of the publication of the merit lists will be duly published by the Human Resources Office by means of a circular.

7.3 An applicant who would like to object to the outcome of the selection process can do so within ten (10) working days from the date of the circular announcing the publication of the merit list by submitting a petition in writing, addressed to the Director General, DES.
Submission of applications

8.1 Qualifications, which were required on entry as teacher/instructor need not be presented with this application or during the interview. Additional related qualifications (accompanied by transcripts in English), participating in voluntary in-service courses and experience claimed must be supported by certificates/documents/testimonials, copies of which are to be attached to the application form. Original certificates and/or testimonials are to be invariably produced for verification at the interview.
