How to become a member?

Membership to the China Cultural Center in Malta is open to anyone residing in Malta. Please hand in your application form with a valid ID, one recent passport photo and the annual membership subscription fee at the Center on 173 Melita Street, Valletta. You may also make an appointment for other date and time with the Center for the registration by emailing us at maltaccc@yahoo.com.

CCC is a non-profit organization. Annual membership subscription fee is 12Eur for individual membership, 14Eur for family membership (a couple with two kids) and 7Eur for student membership.

Your membership will entitle you to the free use of the library at the center. But if you want to borrow books for reading outside the library, you need to apply for a Reader's Card with a deposit of 30Eur which will be returned to you once you terminate your borrowing activities against your Reader's Card and deposit receipt.
