

Family Writing Activity

The National Literacy Agency in collaboration with Prayer Spaces will be organising a unique Family Writing Activity, for children aged 7 to 11 years at Bethlehem in Għajnsielem. This is a unique opportunity for parents/caregivers to participate in an educational experience related to creative reflection and hands-on prayers with their children.

During this activity families will:

- participate in a writing on-site activity,
- write together as a family in a fun and relaxed setting,
- create positive experiences of writing,
- link writing to everyday activities and,
- parents/caregivers will be given examples of writing strategies they can implement with their children.

Although there is no fee for this activity, families are requested to apply by Wednesday 5th December 2018 by calling the NLA on 2598 3324 or send an email to suzanne.balzan@ilearn.edu.mt

You can also book a place through the Facebook page, Xalati ta' Kitba and leave a message with your details or online through the Agency website,
