

Family Writing Activity

The National Literacy Agency in collaboration with Heritage Malta will be organising a Family Writing Activity for children aged 8 to 10 years at the National Curriculum Centre (NCC), Hamrun. This is a unique opportunity for parents/caregivers to participate in an educational practical experience related to the Catacombs and other artefacts from the Maltese History.

During this activity families will:

- participate in a practical session,
- write together as a family in a fun and relaxed setting,
- create positive experiences of writing,
- link writing to everyday activities and,
- parents/caregivers will be given examples of writing strategies they can implement with their children.

Although there is no fee for this activity, families are requested to apply by Monday 17th December 2018 by calling the NLA on 2598 3324 or send an email to suzanne.balzan@ilearn.edu.mt

You can also book a place through the Facebook page, Xalati ta' Kitba and leave a message with your details or online through the Agency website,

<https://education.gov.mt/en/nationalliteracyagency>

DATE:	Friday 4 th January 2019
TIME:	9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.
VENUE:	National Curriculum Centre (NCC), Hamrun

Photo taken from <http://heritagemalta.org/museums-sites/st-pauls-catacombs/>

