"My time as a student was an interesting one, as despite having a number of years of experience I kept on being challenged with new ideas. If one had a growth mindset I'm sure he will find this course worthwhile, especially if you're looking at becoming a youth coach."

ANDREA V.

"Studying at IPES opened new horizons for me in the professional sport management environment. The Institute's student support system is superb too, genuinely assisting the student to grow!"

MARIA M.
